What's Happening in Happy Valley: A Not So Quiet Week.

At first glance, the week after Arts Fest might seem quiet. Dig a little deeper, though, and that is definitely not the case. The week begins with a chance to connect in person at the Connect Happy Valley Social tonight, from 6 to 8 p.m. at Pine Grove Hall. Designed as a welcoming gathering for both longtime residents and people who are newer to the area, the event offers an easy way to meet ...

We Are... Family
Why July 25 May Be Remembered as the Night Penn State's Next Great Movement Found Its Voice

There are evenings that raise money. And then there are evenings that remind us who we are. I have a feeling that Saturday, July 25, 2026, may be remembered for the latter. At first glance, it looks like another summer fundraiser: a buffet dinner, a silent auction, some familiar Penn State faces, another nonprofit asking for support. I don't think that's the story ...

Gather
Connect Happy Valley Social

Remember the old-fashioned Welcome Wagon? This was the way newcomers were introduced to their community, and people had a natural way to meet one another... That role seems to have disappeared, but the need for it hasn't. We see posts all the time from people saying it's hard to meet others here or that there isn't much to do. We beg to differ. Happy Valley is filled with interesting people, events, organizations, and opportunities ...

Live Happy Valley
Let's Visit Rothrock Coffee

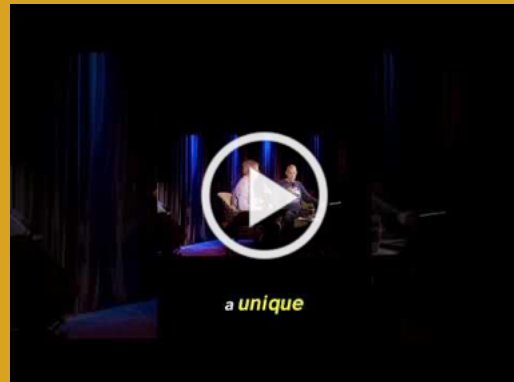

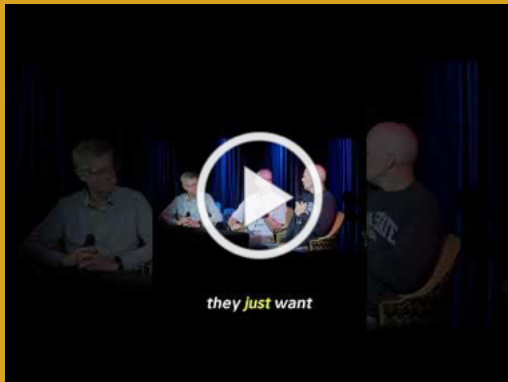

You might not find Ronnie Napolitan behind the counter at Rothrock Coffee. On any given morning, he could just as easily be at the Rothrock roasting facility on North Atherton Street-prepping a new batch of beans before they ever reach South Atherton Street. Rothrock isn't just a coffee shop. It's also a roasting operation, and that matters more than you might think, because the roasting side shows up in the coffee, the training, and the way the whole place operates.
